Volunteer Agreement

I understand that the McMahon/Ryan Child Advocacy Center will contact my references to obtain information regarding my suitability to work with children and families. All of the information on this application is accurate to the best of my knowledge. I agree to participate in the orientation and training as required of the volunteer position[s] that I will be involved with. I understand that a criminal background check, employment history screening and a state central registry check (child abuse/neglect registry) will be completed. This is done to ensure that volunteers have not been convicted of an offense that would be potentially detrimental to the Center's program.

I further understand that the inclusion of any false information or the omission of any requested information is cause for my immediate dismissal from volunteer placement at the McMahon/Ryan Child Advocacy Center.

I agree to inform the McMahon/Ryan Child Advocacy Center if any of the information submitted on this application changes at any time:
